Benefitting

Education, Healthcare, Therapy and
Mentoring for Young Women in Need

Our Guests

More than 500 guests attend this annual event. Most of our guests are from Long Beach and Orange County and make it a point to support our sponsors.

The Need

All proceeds from the 22nd Annual Event "The Big Easy and All That Jazz in the Park" financially support the efforts of Pathways to Independence.

The mission of Pathways to Independence is to transform the lives of disadvantaged single young women through education, therapy, mentoring, housing, and healthcare, to break the cycle of poverty and abuse.

More Info

For more information on the 22nd Annual Pathways Event, please contact the Fund Developer, Lisa Mais at (562) 884-3629 or at lisa.mais@pathwaystoIndependence.org

"I am forever grateful for Pathways to Independence. Pathways rescued me out of the depths of abuse, unhealthy cycles, and hopelessness and brought me to a life I know today."
- Aileen

"Pathways found me at a time in my life where I felt broken and lost. They took me in and provided me with the tools and resources I needed to work through my past as well as prepare for the future. Once a high school drop out, now a board certified Family Nurse Practitioner, I am blessed and full of gratitude for everything Pathways did for me; they believed in me until I learned to believe in myself."
- Candice

"Pathways to Independence gave me the opportunity at a new life. When I first entered Pathways I was unsure of everything, most of all I was unsure of myself and the things I was capable of. After 4 years being supported through school and all of the amazing services that Pathways has to offer, I am a new woman. I am forever grateful."
- Stefanie

"I know from personal experience that Pathways turns struggling lives into lives full of dreams, possibilities, and accomplishments beyond what would have ever been thought possible. Pathways has made this world a better place - restoring faith in humanity and providing more than just an education, but also the fundamental strengths within. The feeling of pure and genuine gratitude is something I will always have for Pathways."
- Mary

Gratitude from Graduates...

"Where no love was to be found, a path was made. I walked through the path for 6 years of my life and found freedom, and independence. When the path came to an end, that is when I discovered love was everywhere."
~ Kimberly

"This program saved my life and helped me become a woman, rather than a damaged, scared and helpless little girl. Every person involved is incredibly dedicated to helping clients thrive. This program has the best cheerleaders (mentors, therapists, coordinators, service providers). Pathways embodies compassion, love, dedication, and above all action. I owe my life to Pathways and all of its members, providers, and supporters, and I am forever grateful."
- Dianne

"Pathways to Independence has completely changed the woman I am today from the inside out. Before Pathways I was lost and broken. Today I am a graduate student pursuing my Master's degree in Counseling, in hopes to help others also find their voice and themselves. I am forever grateful."
- Kascha
